

The Budget Commission met in the House Ways and Means Committee room at 11 o'clock, November 5, 1940, to begin the preparation of the budget for the fiscal year 1941-42.

During the meeting Mr. Ben M. Graham, mayor of Myrtle Beach; Mr. Albert A. Springs, mayor pro tem; and Mr. R. E. L. Brown, councilman, appeared before the Commission to discuss the matter of leasing to the Federal Government certain lands owned by the State in the vicinity of Myrtle Beach to be used as a range for bombing practice. After a full discussion of the matter the Budget Commission gave its approval to the principle of the proposition, although the Commission itself was without authority to consummate the proposed lease.
