

From: Marion Edmonds <medmonds@scprt.com>
To:
Date: 4/11/2016 2:00:50 PM
Subject: Daily Press Clippings: Monday, April 11, 2016

Daily Press Clippings: Monday, April 11, 2016

Director Parrish says almost half of South Carolina's state parks are now equipped with heart defibrillators

Post and Courier ; <http://wjbf.com/2016/04/11/almost-half-of-scs-state-parks-now-have-defibrillators/>

The next big-budget TV production to set up shop in Charleston will be Bravo's 'Top Chef'

Post and Courier

Sloane Stephens lost only one set on her way to her first career clay court title at the Volvo Car Open on Daniel Island in Charleston

New York Times/AP ; Post and Courier ; New York Times/Reuters

Englishman Danny Willett wins 2016 Masters Tournament

The State

Gospel music draws crowds to new Columbia baseball stadium for Night of Joy

The State

A lane of traffic is currently blocked off on the Ashley River bridge into Charleston as a test for a potential bike lane

Post and Courier

Charleston cyclists to bike the bridge today

WCSC-TV

Group wants faster progress on Charleston bike lane

Associated Press

Beach renourishment has long-term impact on sand worms food chain usually eaten by protected migratory shorebirds

Post and Courier

Green groups question renourishment efforts

Myrtle Beach Sun News

Record-breaking crowds attended the first day of the Winyah Bay Heritage Festival on Friday in Georgetown

SouthStrandNews.com

SC native wins Bassmaster Elite series event

SouthStrandNews.com

Changes coming for Florence farmers market

Florence Morning News

The annual Taste of Bluffton draws crowds by the thousands

Beaufort Gazette

Myrtle Beach's busy Ocean Blvd. strip will be closed some busy summer nights to encourage foot traffic

Myrtle Beach Sun News ; <http://www.wmbfnews.com/story/31690901/mayor-suggests-temporary-vehicle-ban-on-oceanfront-street>

Columbia slip-and-slide event returning this summer June 11

The State

SC tries to tackle rural teacher shortage by offering debt forgiveness

New York Times/AP

Dashcam bill heads to the House

Aiken Standard

A legislative audit found that changes to DOT's internal auditor may have compromised its independence

The State

Without a third member on a subcommittee to begin debate on Sen. Lee Bright's bill limiting bathroom access for transgender men and women, the bill could be dead

Post and Courier

Checking in on major legislative issues halfway through the 2016 legislative session

Post and Courier ; Statehouse Report

KFC returning to Orangeburg after abrupt closure 2 and a half years ago

Orangeburg Times and Democrat

The Port of Charleston continues to grow as major industry expands its use of local docks

Post and Courier

Port CEO ponders weighty maritime issues

Post and Courier

With shrimpers behind on rent as this year's season opens, Port Royal officials may have to decide soon whether to keep the town's docks open

Post and Courier/AP

Charleston-area recycling rebounding from a tough year after falling oil prices meant that new plastics are cheaper to buy than recycled plastic

Post and Courier

More than 50 volunteers will likely take to the beaches of Morris Island this weekend to pick up trash that has built up along the waterline of the busy Charleston Harbor

Post and Courier

Impact fees on new development have been floated as a way to finance new roads in Lexington County

The State

Marion Edmonds

medmonds@scprt.com