Milk is bad for you once again.....Yes!!!! All the steroids and such does poison the population. (Article on Hemp Milk in Pastides' letter)

The poisons in lipstick, solo cups (band in U.S. since 1976) is sending women through menopause five years early and slowly killing our children.

President Obama wants to use DNA (Gene) research to correct diseases and ask for $250 Million on research.....Medical Marijuana and hemp carry the same genes as breast milk, spine juices, cleans toxins, best vitamins (seeds).....Open minded research with a grown product that has never killed anyone in Natural State.....seeds/buds.....the perfect receptor for out human body to bond with????

With hemp production everything is non poisonous.....With Medical Marijuana; taking it to another tier in development is what's getting bad reviews.....(Meth problem began same way).....

“Success is not a destination, but the road that you're on. Being successful means that you're working hard and walking your walk every day. You can only live your dream by working hard towards it. That's living your dream.”
