scstateparks The beach at Hunting Island #SCStateParks is just as spectacular as ever! See it yourself beginning this Friday, May 26. To help make your visit that much more enjoyable, carpool to the park. We did lose some parking spaces, and carpooling will help alleviate some of the parking issues, especially during peak times. For more tips and information on what to expect, type <http://bit.ly/Hlopen> into your browser beardenrusty Probably the single most beautiful stretch of beach on the SC coast - the forest comes right down to the ocean - very primeval and mysterious - used to love the campsites just behind the dunes, sheltered by trees and a 2 minute walk to the waterside
