Each year on June 21, United Ways around the world invite their communities to improve the conditions in which they live by volunteering with United Way.

This year's United Way of Oconee Day of Action will be a Day of Caring and will be observed on Friday, June 19, 9am-2pm. The United Way of Oconee

County will setup in the CATBus shelters in front of Norton Park, Downtown Seneca, and be available with several vendors and agencies to offer some free services (ie. Shred truck, vision screening, medicine disposal, etc.). You will also be able to get information on a variety of services offered in Oconee County. Please come by and see us!
