Saturday was a productive day at Devils Fork State Park! The park & the Friends of Jocassee held the 8th Annual VIP day (Volunteer, Improve, Preserve). Over 100 volunteers spent the day picking up garbage along the shore & on trails, and over 50 volunteers cleaned up underwater by scuba diving. Other projects included maintenance of the pollinator gardens, and Oconee Bell habitat protection on the Oconee Bell Trail. Thank you to all who helped with this project!

Lori Toro Finger would love to help next year. How can I sign up?
