Teresa Gainey I pay $99 now for the plus so I'm not sure how that is an increase.
at 20:48:22 on 12/10/2019 UTC

Shannon Ellis Teresa Gainey, I added the link to the price increases. They are rolling out a new pass program with different names and access abilities.
at 20:55:11 on 12/10/2019 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Yes. It expires at midnight online.

Lenna W. Wishert Got my inland pass. A little disappointed that the prices are jumping from $50 to $75 though Linda Elkins Sarah Campen Thanks for the info, got the Palmetto Passport.

at 23:21:46 on 12/10/2019 UTC

Raisa Sibgatullina What the difference between 3 passports?

at 23:38:33 on 12/10/2019 UTC

Kristalyn Poole Raisa Sibgatullina if you look online. It will tell you

at 23:53:58 on 12/10/2019 UTC

Valerie Lamott If you're currently buying the plus, there is no increase. Still $99/year for all the parks.

at 1:23:05 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Valerie Lamott The inland pass gets you in all the non-coastal parks ($50). The statewide passport gets you in all 47 parks ($75). And the passport plus ($99) gets you in all the parks plus some other freebies like free house tours. Next year these passports will no longer exist (but current ones will be valid till their usual expiration) and they'll be replaced with two-- the select pass that gets you in select parks (there's a list on their website) for $75 or the all parks pass that appears to be very similar to the current passport plus ($99).

at 1:27:02 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Valerie Lamott $6.25 a month for a carload of people is still a pretty good deal

at 1:29:35 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Michele Rhodes Maples Thanks. Got ours.

at 1:56:25 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Deb Sturgeon Garrett I went to Lake Hartwell State Park and bought my Passport! I do this every year at Christmas time. Thank you.

at 5:34:09 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Nicole Koenig I was informed that having just the inland pass will not give access to Paris Mountain, Jones Gap, Devil's Fork, and Table Rock. Does this mean the pass I bought in September will no longer give me access or do I fall under the old rule since I purchased in 2019? I know costs have to adjust to maintain the parks but this is super disappointing-as a teacher, even the $50 was a splurge for me. Looks like I won't be going anymore after this pass expires.

at 6:05:03 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Suzanne Fairchild Deb Sturgeon Garrett I love Lake Hartwell. It's a super park, well maintained and the staff are wonderful!
at 10:45:35 on 12/11/2019 UTC

John Ellington I literally just got my pass last month! What are the odds that now you have a discount code! Nothing for veterans at the time I bought it.. This would have been very helpful to use! Thanks anyway!
at 12:22:14 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Lynn Seldon Thanks, y'all...got ours!
at 13:31:23 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Janice Pearl You charge too much for those on fixed income. People over 65 should get a lifetime pass for free.
at 14:42:06 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein We won't be paying it. SC parks are way overpriced. This is the current price at Silver Springs SP in Fla.

at 15:58:13 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein Nope, you lose the 6 months :(
at 15:59:48 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein No, this is a great deal

at 16:00:21 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Jane Ochsenbein $120 ur new price & some parks going up to $8 per person
at 16:01:48 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Shannon Ellis Not sure where you found $120, but the most expensive pass is the ALL Park Passport for $99.
at 16:03:13 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Darlene Phillips Nicole Koenig inland pass will still work for those parks in 2020 according to the lady I spoke with from the state park..
at 17:47:59 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Darlene Phillips Shannon Ellis I was told on the phone if I purchased the inland pass it will still be honored in 2020 for table rock and devils fork

at 17:50:03 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Shannon Ellis That is correct.
at 17:50:25 on 12/11/2019 UTC

Nicole Koenig Darlene Phillips thanks
at 18:17:13 on 12/11/2019 UTC
