AS/R Systems, Inc. to Locate in Jasper County

Carousel Manufacturer Investing $2.5 Million to Establish Lowcountry Operations

COLUMBIA, S.C. – AS/R Systems Inc., a leading manufacturer of customized and rebuilt carousels for industrial applications, has announced that the company plans to move operations to Ridgeland, South Carolina, where its affiliate, Robertson Partnership, plans to construct a 40,000 square-foot facility at the Cypress Ridge Industrial Park.

Founded in 1991, AS/R Systems Inc. leads the technology transfer market for specialized Goods to Person (G2P) technology, critical to manufacturing and distribution enterprises. Their customized vertical and horizontal carousels, along with technical services, provide significant space and labor improvements to a wide base of manufacturing and distribution firms across the U.S. and Canada, particularly in the health care, e-commerce, manufacturing and retail sectors.

For more information on AS/R Systems, visit the company's website at www.asrsystems.com.

QUOTES

"We chose Jasper County for the relocation of our Illinois operation because the location offers excellent access to markets via I-95 and the Ports of Savannah and Charleston. In addition, Governor Haley, Jasper County Council and the economic development team have provided a business-friendly community in which our company can grow." –AS/R Systems Owner Doug Robertson

"AS/R Systems' decision to invest in our state and establish operations in Jasper County proves that South Carolina is open for business to companies in all industries. This $2.5 million investment and the 11 new jobs it will create is a terrific beginning to a partnership between our state and this great company." –Gov. Nikki Haley

"Thanks to our world-class workforce, pro-business environment and significant investment from firms such as AS/R Systems, Inc., South Carolina continues to lead the way when comes to manufacturing. I offer my congratulations to AS/R Systems and look forward to watching them succeed in our state for many years to come." –Secretary of Commerce Bobby Hitt

"Jasper County proudly welcomes AS/R Systems, Inc. to our industrial community. Our county government will do everything we can to create the best pro-business environment for this project because we believe that every job created improves the quality of life for a family in our area." –Jasper County Council Chairwoman Barbara Clark

"SouthernCarolina Alliance appreciates AS/R Systems' investment in our region, and we appreciate the jobs that this new operation will create." –SouthernCarolina Regional Development Alliance Chairman Buddy Phillips
