Subject: Escape into music, art, fresh air, and green grass!

From nitro-fueled rock'n'roll, to Americana/Folk Rock, the inaugural Saluda Shoals MusicFest is bringing five bands to Saluda Shoals Park on Saturday, May 16th.

The eclectic musical lineup is headlined by the Woggles, an Atlanta, Georgia based band who combine a whole lot of 60's rock'n'roll with a fist-full of soul, cool rhythm & blues and a splash of surf.

Other featured artists include:

- Charlotte, NC-based folk band Sinners & Saints performing upbeat roots music and Americana-tinged ballads.
- Los Perdidos, an instrumental surf-rock trio hailing from Columbia, SC.
- Columbia, SC band The Capital City Playboys will take the stage featuring a high-energy punk-rockabilly sound.
- Also joining the lineup are the Prairie Willows, a folk trio of ladies with truckloads of talent and chemistry.

The outdoor concert will kick off at 1:00 p.m. and run until 8:00 p.m. (gates open at 12:00 noon).

Food offerings will include the Wurst Wagen and Belgian Waffle food trucks. Beer will be available for purchase by Palmetto Brewing Company.

View some great art from Jasper Magazine - The Word on Columbia Arts featured artists.

Rain or shine! Chairs and picnic blankets are suggested!
Please leave coolers and pets at home!

Tickets are $10 and can be purchased in advance or at the gate the day of the show.
