Hello! I have a big problem! We have a camping reservation at Hunting Island State Park for today thru Wednesday. Now the Hurricane Isaias is supposed to go right through there. We very very much do not want to change our plans, but really don't want to try tent camping during a hurricane on the beach. We have already made plans for camping at Oconee State Park instead for the same dates. I have called Hunting Island multiple times yesterday, but only get a busy signal. Is it possible to change the dates for this trip. We still want to go, but at a later date.

I just made the reservation over the phone with Oconee directly. It is for the same dates as Hunting Island.

if you can't get in touch with HI, see if they can help you when you arrive at Oconee. If not, call our reservation number tomorrow morning. They open at 9am. They should be able to assist you. I cannot access reservations.

I just spoke with Megan at Oconee and she said she can't access and make changes to other parks reservations.

Then call 1-866-345-7275 in the morning if you cannot get in touch with Hunting Island today.

I was able to get in contact with someone that manages our reservation system. If you will just respond with confirmation that you would like the Hunting Island reservation cancelled, he will refund you for the $216.45. Just respond here. Thanks!

Thanks so much! I appreciate that, but I was actually able to finally contact the park this morning and change dates so we should be all set! Thank you again!

Ok! Even better! Enjoy your time at Oconee and we're going to hope this tropical storm skirts by SC!

Yeah. It's not looking good for the coast :(but hopefully it won't cause too much damage. I wouldn't mind so much if we had an RV or a cabin, but I don't want to be that close to the shore in a tent with a storm going by (even if it doesn't make landfall)!

I don't blame you! Take care.
