scstateparks @dizzyjellyspell @_saggamuffin_ can you help with this? 🤔

\_saggamuffin\_ @dizzyjellyspell I am pretty sure this is right behind cabin #4 ... public access boardwalk down down to the river. To get to the cabins, you take 1st left before the little gate house and it will be behind the 4th cabin on the right.

dizzyjellyspell @_saggamuffin_ oh nice I've looked at the cabins I didn't know there was a public walk thanks thanks for sharing something new for me!

krisog58 That is beautiful!♥

paulsbeverly Camping at Givhans Ferry now and found this boardwalk. It is behind the cabins. However, you will find a trail that starts at the swimming area. Go down, take a left and pass the bathroom, there you will find the trail that connects to that boardwalk. This trail is not on the map. Really nice short trail which is at the river level.
