RE: DSS

Last month my daughter passed away from cancer. She had custody of her 5 year old granddaughter. I go to court on the 17th to obtain custody of my great-granddaughter. The problem is, I filled out all paperwork at the Camden DSS off for Family Independent for Casey and received the letter stating I had 10 days to respond for a telephone interview. I received the letter the day after Thanksgiving.

Since that time, I have tried everyday to contact them and would stay on the telephone on hold for over an hour with no one answering. The recording says due to the disaster relief expect long wait periods.

My question, my great-granddaughter needs this and I can't even get through for the telephone interview. I called the Camden office and they said I could come there today, but might not be able to be seen for the interview.

What am I to do. I don't want to lose the possibility of her getting FI.
