MAKING IT WORK: Modernizing Local Government with Information Technology

Please join us at this upcoming opportunity to learn more about modernizing government using information technology! Sponsored by Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito, the Massachusetts Association of Regional Planning Agencies (MARPA), senior officials from Mass IT and DOR's Division of Local Services, and UMass Boston's Collins Center, Making IT Work: Modernizing Government by Using Information Technology is a half-day conference designed to explore how the Commonwealth's cities and towns are leveraging data and technology to improve operations and better serve residents.
