ADVANCE SHEET UPDATE

May 18, 2016

In this premises liability action arising from an attack at a Burger King drive-through, the S.C. Court of Appeals affirmed the circuit court's grant of summary judgment in favor of Burger King Corporation and Capital Restaurant Group, LLC (collectively Burger King). The court found, inter alia, that Petitioner failed to produce any evidence that Burger King did not execute economically feasible security measures to prevent physical assault in its drive-through. Therefore, the circuit court's grant of summary judgment was proper. Easterling v. Burger King Corp. and Capital Restaurant Group, LLC, Op. No. 5404 (S.C. Ct. App. Filed May 18, 2016) (Shearouse Adv. Sh. No. 20 at 44) is available online.
