Any chance the governor would be available today to speak for a few a minutes about the state of the Republican presidential race? I'm wondering if she wants to speak to like-minded members of her party about how to proceed now that Trump looks like he's going to have a big win tonight, and be well-positioned in the northeastern states next week.

Appreciate the help,

Mike,

Thanks again for reaching out.

I don't know that the governor will have any availability, but, as I said, Chaney Adams, my colleague who is copied on this email, and I have the request on the radar. And we'll be back in touch either way.

Don't hesitate to reach out anytime we can be a resource.

Hi Rob. Thanks for taking a minute this afternoon. Would love the chance to speak with Governor Haley for a profile story after her Republican address next week. I'd write a story for our wire and website, but could also include television, too, if that's something that would be of interest. I'll be in the state on Jan. 13, if that's at all possible.

I'll also be in Columbia this Saturday to catch some of the Jack Kemp forum. Any chance we could meet for dinner or coffee or something?

many thanks,
