Interview Request – DW’s Conflict Zone

28 October 2016

Dear Governor Haley,

On behalf of Deutsche Welle, Germany’s international broadcaster, I would like to request an interview with you for our flagship programme Conflict Zone.

Conflict Zone airs every Wednesday on our English language channel DW News. The one-on-one, 25-minute interview provides a unique opportunity for in-depth discussion on the big political issues of the day. This would be conducted by our presenter Tim Sebastian.

Tim Sebastian is a world-renowned and award-winning journalist with more than 40 years of experience, and has conducted interviews with world leaders including Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, former US President Bill Clinton, former President of the USSR Mikhail Gorbachev and many more.

Since launching in September 2015, Conflict Zone has featured interviews with UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, Afghan President Asharf Ghani, and four-star General and Supreme Commander of NATO Philip Breedlove, among others.

Conflict Zone will be in the United States in November, and we would be delighted to welcome you to record the show between 14 and 16 November at a time and place to be agreed. This could be in South Carolina or a location most convenient to you and would take less than 35 minutes.

I look forward to hearing from you and answering any questions you may have.

Yours sincerely,

Alan MacKenzie
