jamie\_sherbalz When my husband and I first started dating, we took a long drive to visit Kings Mountain in South Carolina. We had been dating for a year and my husband surprised me with this road trip. He knew how much I loved history and that it would be the perfect place to take me. We made vows to each other to one day marry, read every sign, and hiked as many trails as we could find. We fell in love with South Carolina during that trip and now, 11 years later, we bought our first home in the upstate and kings mountain has always been close to our hearts. ❤👉
