

During this difficult time, the Myrtle Beach community offers our deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences to the entire Charleston community.

While the immense sadness and pain you are feeling is unimaginable, we have been humbled, inspired, and touched by your amazing and selfless compassion, grace, and forgiveness.

May your hearts find peace through the healing power of love and strength of community.

