Can't remember the exact line or even the movie it's from. "I love the smell of sewer in the morning." So much for airing the house out today, too.

Candice Barnhart It is usually not too bad by us, but it was horrific when I left, bitchslapped as I was walking out the door by the stench of it.

Nicole Holt Spencer I was thinking the same thing. They can't blame it on the rain today!

Julie Ebo-Lackey I hate to sound like a broken record... But please call DHEC and let them know what street you live on.. They told me that they've been out several times and can't smell anything .. But I doubt seriously they've been out lately though ..

Carol Scoggins Price I've smelled it off and on today. Donna Lansing Lopez, are you a member on the Genearth page? If you don't mind, please record and document the smell on that page as well. We will have a record there in case we need to take more action. Thanks!

Has anyone thought of contacting the developer of Foxbank to see if they may have some pull with this issue? It can't look good on them and this community as it becomes a bigger problem.

Today is the worst odor in over a year in Moncks Corner. I live at 351 Albrighton Way, Moncks Corner 29461.

I am concerned the smell is seeping into my house. I'm not sure if the smell is seeping in or the smell is so vile I can't get it out of my mind.

What has changed in the process at GenEarth in the past 24 hours? Did the iron sponge quit working? Are they burning different materials?

If you have anyone near my home, please have them come and verify this odor.

Thank You,

Dave Manderville
