Hi Chaney,

Billie Jean Shaw here from WIS.

This morning Rev. Jesse Jackson announced that his organization, the Rainbow Push Coalition will sue the state due to failure to expand Medicaid.

He says Gov. Haley is refusing to give South Carolinians basic human rights by refusing to accept federal dollars to expand.

He also claims he's reached out to Gov. Haley several times and has not received a response.

Can you please send over a statement in regards to this- thanks!
