Subject: News Release Deputies Help Revived Unresponsive Person

For Immediate Release:

(Mt. Pleasant, SC) On July 11, 2016, shortly after 9:00 a.m., Deputy Wade and Deputy Smoak were dispatched to 1530 Macoma Road in Mount Pleasant to assist Emergency Medical Services (EMS) with a reported unresponsive male. Our deputies were able to locate the unconscious male, who was apparently experiencing some type of medical event. The unconscious male didn't have a pulse and was not breathing. Prior to our deputies arriving on scene, there was an acquaintance of the unresponsive male attempting to perform CPR; however, he was having difficulty. Deputy Wade acted swiftly and instructed the male to continue providing rescue breaths to the victim, while he gave emergency chest compressions until Emergency Medical Service (EMS) personnel arrived on scene. Deputy Wade and the male were able to revive the victim. EMS arrived and provided more advanced medical care to the victim and was able to stabilize him for transport. The victim was transported to Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) for continued medical treatment. The medical personnel at MUSC stated that without the assistance of the two deputies the victim the end result would have been gravely different for the victim.
