OK, thanks - that's straightforward enough. I'll see you then.

Christian,

Let me first say "congrats" re: the appointment! Look forward to continuing to work with you in your new role.

As for Tuesday, the Caucus is hosting our supporters/contributors for a reception at Charleston Place Hotel - Willow Ballroom. Format will be more social... i.e., business casual attire, heavy hors d'oeuvres and cocktails, no formal speeches, etc. Senator Peeler will likely recognize you before the crowd, but your only responsibility is essentially to enjoy yourself. I promise this isn't a setup to have a faux roast of Senator Sheheen with you as the body-double!

In all seriousness, since you know most of the members, I'm sure some will want to talk to you about the new position and the screening process. But in general, the purpose of the event is show gratitude for our contributors and give them additional access to the senators.

If you have any other questions about the evening, or if you need me to help arrange any accommodations, just let me know. My cell is included below if you need to touch base between now and then.

Your week certainly started on a high note, but I hope the remainder of it is just as great. See you next week.

Regards,
Mark

Hi Mark,

With the Governor in India, it looks like you're probably going to have to settle for me. Katherine gave me a bit of the When/Where (6PM next Tuesday in Charleston?), but I don't know a whole lot about the What:

- Number/type of attendees

- Seated, formal event with a series of speeches vs. a more social event where people just stand/walk around
- What's expected of me
- Etc.

Glad to discuss when you get a chance. And my cell number won't change - still (803) 543-0792.
Thanks.
