I'm in meetings most of the day at the Marriott. We break from 2:15 so I can break away anytime after 2:15 but will need to be back for a committee meeting at 3:30. Whatever time you have is fine. It will be nice to see you.

Would it be easier if I meet you at the State House?

Hi - yes, where are your sessions today? Are you at the Marriott? My schedule's pretty tight until about 2:15, but I can sneak out for coffee or something after that, if that would work.

Good morning, Christian

I received your contact info from Art Dorfman at the National Association of State Comptroller's conference yesterday afternoon. It would be great to talk with you if you have any time today. It would be great to see you and catch up. If today is a busy day for you, I understand. I fly out tomorrow morning but can give you a call if we can't connect in person.

Richard Eckstrom has arranged for the state comptrollers to tour the State House this evening at 6PM. I saw a glimpse of the State House on the news last night and it appears to be much smaller than PA's Capitol. It's always nice to see where other state governments conduct their business.

Hope you are enjoying Columbia, SC. Have a great day.
