Preparations Begin For Annual Governor's Mansion Christmas Open House

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Preparations for the annual Governor's Mansion Christmas Open House will begin on Monday, November 28, at 10:00 AM.

The decorations for this year's open house will include poinsettias grown and donated by the Future Farmers of America from Lexington Technology Center and Christmas trees donated by Price's Christmas Tree Farm in Lexington, S.C., on behalf of the South Carolina Christmas Tree Growers Association.

Representatives from FFA and the South Carolina Christmas Tree Growers Association will make a brief presentation, which is open to the public and the media, and the process of decorating the Mansion for the holidays begins immediately thereafter. Guests, including media, should enter through the main gate off of Lincoln Street. Media who have questions about covering the event should contact Brian Symmes at (803) 673-9437 or BrianSymmes@gov.sc.gov. Guests who have questions about the event should contact Kelly Ervin at (803) 737-0369 or KellyErvin@gov.sc.gov.

The Governor's Mansion Christmas Open House will be held on Monday, December 5, and details will be announced next week.
