Nancy, has there been any further development on the donations? I would like to start getting these releases out early this week.

Nancy –

I've attached the two press releases from last year that we need your help on updating for this year's open house. Am I forgetting anything here?

I know you're on top of this already, but wanted to make sure I wasn't missing anything on my end.

Thanks,

Brian

Nancy -

We were just talking about all of this.

Send over what you have. We want to follow the same processes we follow every year!

Rob, I almost have my part of Christmas at the Mansion ready to send to you for Press Release. I presume there will be press here again for delivery of the trees, etc.? Is it ok with you if ETV comes by and films the ladies of Cola Garden Club while decorating?

Thanks!
