Dear Ms. Forkner:

I am enclosing herewith a copy of an e-mail that I recently received from my constituent, Clarence G. Sutherland, relative to a Medicaid penalty assessed against his wife. I would appreciate it if you would ask your staff to look into this to see if anything can be done to help the Sutherlands under the governing statutes and regulations.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Subject: help with penalty of 29.56 months from getting wife in nursing home
CC: <Seventyseventy@aol.com>

My name is Clarence G Sutherland, tried to get my wife signed up for Medicaid last year. In April 2007 I transferred my home to my children, it was in my name she had no part in ownership, did not know it would have anything to with getting her on medical. Filed for medical in August for her and put a waiting penalty period until January 24, 2010. . They have no maximum penalty period and am not being fairly treated. I am 82 years of age, cannot take care of her at home. You have spoke to my Kiwanis club (Pee Dee Kiwanis club) on several occasions. could you help me get this penalty taken off, Please let know.

Dear Ms. Sutherland:

Senator Hugh Leatherman contacted our agency on behalf of your husband regarding your concerns about Medicaid eligibility.

Your application for Medicaid's Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) waiver program was denied on September 28, 2007, due to a transfer of your homestead property. If there is a transfer for less than fair market value by either spouse, the value of the property is used to determine the length of the penalty period. In your situation, we have determined that the penalty period is 29.56 months; therefore, under the HCBS program, you will not qualify for Medicaid services until January 24, 2010.

On February 8, 2008, you applied for Medicaid coverage through our Nursing Home program, and your application is currently pending. Your penalty period of 29.56 months will apply to this application as well. You may be eligible to receive Medicaid for covered medical expenses, but the earliest date Medicaid will pay the nursing home will be January 24, 2010.

Medicaid policy does allow the homestead property to be transferred back and no longer considered a penalty-liable transfer. Should your situation change, please contact Mr. Jim Hampton, Richland County Medicaid Supervisor, at (803) 714-7561.

If you have additional questions about the Medicaid program, please contact Jennifer Dabbs at (803) 898-3965. We hope this information is helpful to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sutherland:

Senator Hugh Leatherman asked our agency to respond to your concerns regarding Medicaid eligibility for your wife, Francis E. Sutherland.

Ms. Sutherland's application for Medicaid's Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) waiver program was denied on September 28, 2007, due to a transfer of the homestead property. If there is a transfer for less than fair market value by either spouse, the value of the property is used to determine the length of the penalty period.

In her situation, we have determined the penalty period is 29.56 months; therefore, under the HCBS waiver program, she will not qualify for Medicaid services until January 24, 2010 at the earliest. However, we made Ms. Sutherland aware that Medicaid policy allows the homestead property to be transferred back and no longer be considered a penalty-liable transfer.

If you have additional questions about the Medicaid program, please contact Jennifer Dabbs at (803) 898-3965. We hope this information is helpful to you.
