Fort Bragg

Home of the Airborne and Special Operation Forces

Fort Bragg is home to the XVIII Airborne Corps, the 82nd Airborne Division, and the US Special Operations Command. The installation is located west of the City of Fayettevillen and occupies 251 square miles across five counties in the North Carolina Sandhills Region.

As a result of BRAC 2005 decisions, Fort Bragg is home to the US Army Forces Command and US Army Reserve Command. BRAC 2005 actions at Fort Bragg include the activation of the 4th Brigade Combat Team, 82nd Airborne Division, the departure of the 7th Special Forces Group, and the realignment of Pope Air Force Base resulting in the transfer of real property and services to the Army and the renaming of the base to Pope Field. The installation also experienced population growth resulting from the Grow the Army Initiative and Army Modularity. These defense related actions, coupled with BRAC 2005, have resulted in a net gain of approximately 7,500 additional military and civilians jobs to the region.

ExpoBragg is an effective way to meet face-to-face with military & government contracting officers, program directors, technical specialists, people who can influence purchase decisions, government & military contractors looking for teaming agreements.

We anticipate a host of government and military attendees, presenters, and agency exhibitors, in addition to contractors from on and off post.

The event will include Match-Making Sessions with an opportunity to present your product or service to a Panel of Government Small Business Specialists (military buyers). A time-slot schedule and sign-up opportunity will be announced.

Space is limited.

To submit a proposal to conduct a workshop or lecture, please send program title, and description to:
