Dear Nikki R Haley:

I, as a concerned citizen of the United States and of the State of South Carolina, want to know what you and your office are going to do about protecting our religious rights? The Supreme Court's recent ruling that gay couples can marry within any state of the United States brings much concern to our minds. We know as a Christian that gay marriage is sin. We don't believe in it nor do we accept it.

No doubt we are living in a wicked world. Our forefathers which wrote the Constitution had no idea that in the year 2015 that the Word of God would not hold the right place in America. How can the Supreme Court redefine marriage? What happened to our Constitution and the belief for this country that In God We Trust? Are our churches now going to be under attack because of standing on the Word of God? Is our Pastor going to be under attack because he preaches the Word of God and stands on the fact that homosexuality is a SIN! It is time Christians stand up for what is right before we are overtaken and lose our rights!

Please stand for what is right! We as a small church (Almetta Baptist Church) in Jefferson, SC are trying to do so. The future of tomorrow is depending on you to do so too.

Thank you and May God once again Bless America!
