Some of our park rangers made the hike to the top of Table Rock this past weekend, and here's a shot they took from atop! Have you ever made this hike? Tell us!

Brandy Rae Baker Ableman Me, my husband and my three children made this hike last summer. My children were 12, 7 & 4 at the time. A challenging hike for the little one, but we made it and it was well worth the hike. We spend a lot of time at the Park and have done most of the trails. Looks like it is time to do the top again :) Beautiful picture!
