Dear Katherine,

PI find attached the itinerary we have prepared for the Hon'ble Nikki R Haley, Governor of South Carolina , for her Punjab visit. The itinerary has been prepared with due consideration to the weather conditions prevailing in Punjab during Mid November and our past experiences. I would strongly recommend that we adhere to this schedule to minimize the chances of disruption in travel. The fog that notoriously descends during winter months here makes even the road travel an extremely difficult proposition while flying is absolutely ruled out.

I would deeply appreciate if I have your response to this by tomorrow so that I can pass formal orders to various departments engaged for making logistic and other arrangements for the visiting delegates.

warm regards,
cheema
