CONTINUES TO SUPPORT EVENT WITH YOUTH AND SUSTAINABILITY PROGRAMS

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, SC – The Heritage Classic Foundation is pleased to announce that Coca-Cola Consolidated has signed a five-year extension as the official non-alcoholic beverage provider of the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing.

Coca-Cola products have been served at the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing since the PGA TOUR event debuted in 1969 at Harbour Town Golf Links, 48 years ago.

“The Heritage Classic Foundation has enjoyed its partnership with Coca-Cola Consolidated,” Steve Wilmot, President of the Heritage Classic Foundation said. “We are proud to be associated with such an iconic brand who has a history of helping others. Their continued support for almost a half century is unprecedented and has quenched the thirst of our loyal spectators and sponsors”.

“We are delighted to continue our partnership with the Heritage Classic Foundation,” said Heather Hucks, Senior Director Brand Marketing for Coca-Cola Consolidated. “For the last 48 years, we have been proud supporters of the RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing – the only PGA TOUR event in South Carolina. Our partnership is rooted in tradition and we are excited to continue the tradition of being the official non-alcoholic beverage provider of the tournament.”

In addition to providing products for the annual PGA TOUR event, Coca-Cola Consolidated also sponsors the Youth Day Putting Contest, held each Tuesday during tournament week. They also provide the on-course recycling bins to assist the tournament in its sustainability efforts.

The 49th annual RBC Heritage Presented by Boeing will take place April 10-16, 2017 over the famed Harbour Town Golf Links. Tournament tickets are on sale at www.rbcheritage.com.
