Dear Gov. Haley

Hello, my name is Stacie Davis and I live here in the state of South Carolina and ~~was~~ as a resident for almost 40 years in all my years living here while at the same time having been blessed/fortunate to have never been homeless. It saddens me to hear how after numerous attempts by Wendell Dailiard to reach you you are hesitant to respond. Like myself you being a minority also I find this totally outrageous man. Please when you can find the time, because with the recent flooding we are dealing with at present you have your hands full certainly. A visit to the homeless should be paid while we sit in four walls with a roof over our heads (That's due to God's grace. His word clearly states that we are to never overlook those that are without, food, clothing, a place to stay. Can you stop by the test sites and at least try to see what Mr. Dilliard and I have seen it will astound you. I recently have sat with, visited these people and they are wonderful human beings who just need a chance to be heard & helped. I hope that this letter finds you in good spirits.

Yours Sincerely
Stacia Davis
