Turner has some good statistics about how well we once did soldier out-processing and retention into the workforce and how that has flagged over the years – this is something that I think he does a good job talking about.

Guys,

Wanted to follow back up with y'all regarding the release below. We discussed it earlier this summer, and I think everyone was just got busy. It looks like an event the governor would probably like to do with DEW. Y'all OK with setting up a press conference about it?

Happy Friday! Hate to be a bother, but did either Ted or Christian get back with you on this? Mr. Finan inquired about it late yesterday so I want to get back with him. If it's not a problem, I could send it out with the below-mentioned as the opening sentence rather than what's there now.

The SC Department of Employment and Workforce (DEW) and the South Carolina branch of Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) today announced that they are combining efforts to reduce unemployment among South Carolina veterans.

Thx!

Rob—

I'd like to send out the attached news release, but wanted to get your take on the following two paragraphs. Which one of the two would you rather I use? Thanks a bunch, AF.

Gov. Nikki Haley announced today that the SC Department of Employment and Workforce (DEW) and the South Carolina branch of Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) are combining efforts to reduce unemployment among South Carolina veterans.
