Subject: Re: Possible Claim against SC Department of Revenue

Skip , this is not a true statement about me being shocked . If you remember you called me and I politely asked you not to attend that this was not the appropriate time or place for you to express your grievances . Please do not put incorrect words in my mouth . Enough is enough already and I would appreciate if you took me off all your lists . Thank you !

The result of the audit was that the CACVB is operating properly as a 501(c)(6) corporation and owes no taxes. Consequently, we don't believe that your federal/state tax concerns are relevant to the CACVB. Also, the IRS agent who audited us never said anything about you. He certainly never said that we should ignore you. As far as I know, he has no reason to know who you are. As always, we appreciate your interest in the Charleston Area CVB.

As I stated no rush , but at some point towards the end of January you should have a better handle on all this . Our last resort and a good resort if need be is all this is decided thru the SC courts and my media and others in the ad sales for profit business stop paying SC and Federal taxes or shift some of their assets to a non profit , sell ads , pay a 400k salary to top employees until SC dept of rev and Irs decide what they will do .
