"Governor Haley is a hypocrite. Did she forget that she supported borrowing money for Boeing in 2010? Did she forget she signed another bond bill that borrowed hundreds of millions of dollars for Boeing that maxed out the state's credit card in 2013? Apparently she prefers borrowing money when interest rates are high, but not when they are low. I'm so sick of this governor thinking she can play by a different set of rules and then point her finger at us for doing exactly what she's already done. This money is going to our technical schools, a children's hospital, and jobs-training centers. Governor Haley is a selfish, vindictive narcissist who is more concerned about her own political ambitions than the state of South Carolina. It's time for her to back off and let us do our jobs."
