Haley: When last we spoke, you were going to get with Josh to come up with some dates, perhaps on a Friday or a Monday, you two could come down here to chat with us about the liquid waste issues at the Savannah River Site. I didn't want to be a pest (too late, right?!), but I did want to remind you guys. I figured it'll be hard to break the gravitational pull in the State House when the Legislature is in session!

No hurry; just let me know. Thanks!

Dean
