Congress proposes to cut SHIP funding

Congress recently passed the Balanced Budget Act of 2015, but is still in the process of drafting appropriations levels. Proposals on the table include a possible 42% reduction in funding for State Health Insurance Assistance Programs (SHIPs), calling for only $30 million in FY16. With 3.4 million client contacts in 2014, this would mean a drastic reduction in counseling support for Medicare beneficiaries.

About the SNAP standard medical expense deduction

Following questions from some of our grantees, we contacted USDA to see if the standard medical expense deduction for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits applies at the individual or household level. USDA clarified that the deduction applies to the household. However, if medical expenses exceed the standard, a household or individual can claim actual expenses. ## What is reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities?

An audit by the Government Accountability Office (GAO) has stated that Social Security disability programs “... are out of sync with modern concepts of disability. Modern concepts focus on an individual’s functional abilities in the workplace environment with reasonable accommodations.” In response, Social Security is seeking public comments by Dec. 1 to determine if reasonable accommodations should be considered in the adult disability benefits determination process.
