Katherine,

Thank you for taking my call the other day. Hope all has been well.

As I mentioned Paul Rainwater (Gov Jindal's former Chief of Staff) wanted to reach out to the right person and offer himself as a resource doing the response and recovery efforts in South Carolina. He headed up our Department of Recovery after Hurricane Katrina, and moved on to Deputy Chief of Staff and CFO for the state during his tenure with us. He's certainly well versed in the nuances at FEMA and HUD so he can give some good insight on pitfalls and successes. He was also a Colonel in the National Guard so was at times on the front lines of many of these battles.

He can be reached at rainwater97@gmail.com and his cell is (225) 281-8176.

Any advice or assistant would be very much appreciated. Look forward to seeing you soon! (FYI RGA's annual convention is in Vegas this year so maybe you can be there).

Let me know if you should ever need anything or have any questions. My cell is below.

THANKS,
Nial
