Don't know if this will change how you proceed, but this is what DOA's PIO just sent.

Brian-
I have talked with Jim about this.

Have a good one-

Brian and Kelly,

Me again. We have a constituent saying she will go to the press because the Governor won't do anything for her. We even told her we were not the Governor's office but would be glad to forward her complaints to the legal staff. She has an attorney. You can see in the attachments that the IG and OHR both gave her the same response. Let me know if I need to head a different direction in the event she calls back.

Jim,

Concerns re: Catherine McKnight
212 Roach Avenue
Swansea, South Carolina 29160

Ms. McKnight was injured on the job May 4th, 2015 and on leave from May 5, 2016 – May 17th 2015 due to her injury.

Ms. McKnight feels that she should have been compensated for May 11, 2015 a state holiday observance. Ms. McKnight wants to restore her Holiday time for Confederate Memorial Day due to the fact she is an full time state employee.
