Hello Mr. Glaccum,

First, I would like to thank you for your reply.

Second I was wondering why you didn't attempt to answer our question. We asked what we needed to do to offer a home to a refugee family of the Syrian crisis, not what security and social programs exist. I trust our government will do a proper screening of anyone coming into our country. I do not allow fear to get in the way of trying to do what is the right thing to do and I sure won't let politics do that either. We will contact the Federal government to proceed with the offer to house a refugee family or two.

Sincerely,

Don & Genie Frierson
