Tommy,

I met with the Governor today about the nomination for Mrs. Carmela Hudson.

The Governor really, really, really would like to make sure that Mrs. Hudson is honored for her dedicated service. Undoubtedly, her service to the Greer community has made a significant impact and the information in the packet makes Mrs. Hudson an ideal candidate for the Order of the Silver Crescent. As we discussed The Order of the Palmetto recognizes service on a statewide level. We are looking for more information that would describe Mrs. Hudson's service and how it qualifies as statewide impact beyond the Greer Community.

If additional information is not available, we would like to arrange for a special presentation of the Order of the Silver Crescent presented by Governor Haley in her office where a small group could gather to honor Mrs. Hudson.

What are your thoughts? Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Katherine
