Subject: Invitation - NSCW Luncheon in Columbia

Good morning,

On behalf of Andrew Campanella, president of National School Choice Week, it is my pleasure to invite you to participate in a special event in South Carolina to celebrate National School Choice Week 2014. The event is a celebratory luncheon, and is part of National School Choice Week's cross-country whistle-stop train and motor-coach tour, which will stop in 14 cities. There is no cost to attend, and you are invited to bring guests, but we request that you RSVP by the end of this week, if possible.

National School Choice Week is nonpartisan and nonpolitical, and will feature a total of 5,500 independently-planned and independently-funded events across the country. National School Choice Week is an independent public awareness campaign that shines a positive spotlight on all types of education options for children, including traditional public schools, public charter schools, magnet schools, private schools, online academies, and homeschooling.

The planning partners who have worked so hard to make this event possible include:

- American Federation for Children
- Americans for Prosperity - South Carolina
- Foundation for Excellence in Education
- Friedman Foundation for Educational Choice
- GreatSchools
- National Alliance for Public Charter Schools
- Palmetto Policy Forum
- PublicSchoolOptions.org
- Parent Revolution
- Provost Academy South Carolina
- Public Charter School Alliance of South Carolina

You can download a copy of the flyer announcing this event here.

We hope you can attend! Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,
Anita Peek-Brinson
Assistant to the President
