Daniel just talked to Laganelli and it went well. The focus was on mail. John said that as long as they are getting any mail at their Swedish address they are good. However, when I talked to Val yesterday he seemed to be concerned that they would also be getting mail here. I'm not sure that we're going to get letter or website language that provides the comfort Volvo is looking for. Maybe I'm wrong and John will talk to Val and Annie today and they'll be able to reach some sort of compromise that will work. I'll keep you updated if anything happens on this end.

Thanks for your help!

Holly,

I talked to Val and Annie from DMV for a while yesterday afternoon but didn't really accomplish anything. I did have another thought.

Do you think we could get the AG to issue an opinion to interpret the statute?
