Description/Significant Features:

The two-story masonry church, which is T-shape in form, is clad in brick and topped with a front-gabled roof. A two-story pedimented portico embraces the building's facade and is supported by four square columns. A centrally placed doorway, comprised of two paneled doors topped by a broken pediment, rests underneath the portico. The building appears to retain original 16-over-16 sash along its long ends and smaller eight-over-eight sash on its facade.
