Dear Friend,

Here's what happened this week at Interior: the Rim Fire burning in Yosemite is now the largest in that park's history; BOEM completes its second competitive lease sale for renewable energy in federal waters; Secretary Jewell wraps up her tour of Alaska, and spots two polar bears on a stroll in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge; the Secretary travels to Honolulu for the 12th Annual Native Hawaiian Convention, then it's on to the Marshall Islands for the Pacific Islands Forum; and a U.S. Navy veteran becomes the first completely blind kayaker to travel the length of the Grand Canyon.
