Thanks, Chaney,

I've listened to audio of the governor's response the other day and have a much clearer understanding of her position. Thanks for sending these over and for calling to clarify.

Avery.

Subject: Question for a story in The State

Hey Chaney,

I'm Avery Wilks, a reporter at The State newspaper. I'm writing a story for tomorrow's paper on farmers' flood recovery efforts, and some are hoping for federal grant money to get them through this year.

I was told that Gov. Haley would need to request federal funds for South Carolina's farmers before it can be appropriated in the upcoming federal budget.

Can you confirm that is the case?

And also, does the governor plan to do so? If so, how much does Gov. Haley plan to request?

If it would be easier to call to reply, the best number to reach me is my cell: 803-374-3115.

Thanks, Chaney.
