A nice bio of your meeting participant from your good friend Talbert Black starts in para 5.

Russ really is a total resource who I'm sure wants to help so put him to work if u want some assistance...maybe throw the gas tax issue his way. Will send over his presentation for the BEA mtg which is 1000% better than anything we got last year from a visiting economist. Of course you are just gonna focus on his prediction of slowing growth...

Thx again for meeting with him at 11 tmrw.
