There is still time to submit your application to win a Smart Cities Council Readiness Challenge Grant. We're awarding grants to five U.S. cities to help them use technology to become more livable, workable and sustainable — an approach that also creates new, good-paying jobs.

But you have to hurry. The deadline to apply is December 31.

Step 1: Request your application. The interactive application helps you build and improve your smart cities plans.

Step 2: Ask for help. Whether you have a question or want help developing your application, contact our Chief Scientist, Dr. Stuart Cowan. Several of our partners and advisors are also willing to provide hands-on help, particularly in the areas of water, energy and transportation.

Step 3: Submit your application by December 31.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to win tailored help and supporting technology to improve your city. Start your application today.
