Dear friend --

All around us change is happening. We are building a 21st Century Columbia together.

Since taking office less than three short years ago, we have cut crime rates across Columbia -- with a 5.7% decline in violent crime and a 12.8% drop in property crime in just the past year alone.

We have generated a budget surplus for three straight years, worked to cut unemployment by nearly two percent, and by improving our credit rating and refinancing our city bonds, we've saved taxpayers more than $12.6 million.
