Ms. Black,

Good morning, I am currently doing research for the article I will be writing on the Lt. Governor's visit and need some help. I was wondering if you could provide any official release or proclamations for context.

Any additional information on why the Lt. Gov. feels visiting the military in South Carolina would be gratefully appreciated.

Thank you all your help, time and consideration regarding my inquires.

Very Respectfully

Mrs. Black,

Happy Friday! I just wanted to reach out today and introduce you to SSgt Banton. He will be our Photojournalist covering the event. He will be writing a news story on the visit and the Military Month Proclamation.

I gave him your information as a good start to get some background and quotes routed to the Lt. Governor prior to the event. Thank you again for all you do. We are looking forward to the 13th.

Very Respectfully,
